The Vice President-Elect Goes to Washington,

ACCOMPANIED BY HIS FAMILY AND SEVERAL FRIENDS.

It is said that Harrison Will, in his inaugural address, state positively that he will not be a candidate for re-nomination.—The President Issues a Proclamation.

New York, Feb. 28.—Vice President-elect Levi P. Morton and family left their residence at 85 Fifth avenue at 9 o'clock a. m. on route for Washington. The party was driven to the D. S. Brosses street ferry in two coaches. In the first was Vice President Morton, Mrs. Morton and two of their daughters. The other carriage was occupied by three more daughters of Mr. Morton and a friend, a Miss Hoyt.

Mr. Morton was attired in his usual suit of broadcloth, over which he wore a heavy coat. The ladies all wore gossamer cloaks to protect them from the snow, which was then falling heavily. On the arrival of the party at Jersey City the private car of Mr. Frank Thompson, the vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad, was awaiting them attached to the rear of the first section of the Washington limited. A number of friends had assembled at the depot awaiting to see the party off.

The following persons accompanied the vice president and occupied seats in the private car: Mr. and Mrs. Ira E. Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Whitney, John H. Hall, of the Union League club, and his son J. S. Hall. The train pulled out from the depot at 10:15 promptly on time. Just before the signal to start was given Mr. Morton stepped out on the rear platform of the car and shook hands with the reporters and those of his friends who remained.

Don't Want a Second Term.

New York, Feb. 28.—The Times' Indianapolis special says: Gen. Harrison, it is reported, will give the public, and especially the politicians, a surprise in his inaugural address. If he does what some of his friends profess to believe he will, he will certainly startle the place hunters. He has, it is said, had the idea under consideration for some weeks, and the rapacity of members of his party has finally driven him to adopt it.

If he is not dissuaded from his purpose during the next five days he will boldly announce to the American people that under no circumstances will he be a candidate for renomination four years hence. The adoption of such a platform would, it is argued in his behalf, insure him greater freedom of action, and guarantee him a degree of independence seldom enjoyed by a president.

Presidential Proclamation.

"WHEREAS, Public interests require that the senate should be convened at 12 o'clock on the 4th day of March next, to receive such communications as may be made by the executive. Now, therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, president of the United States, do hereby proclaim and declare that an extraordinary occasion requires the senate of the United States to convene at the capitol in the city of Washington, on the 4th day of March next, at 12 o'clock noon, of which all persons who shall at that time be entitled to act as members of that body are hereby required to take notice.

"Given under my hand and the seal of the United States, at Washington, the 26th day of February, in the year of our Lord 1889, and of the independence of the United States of America the 113th.

"GROVER CLEVELAND.

"By the President:

"T. F. BAYARD, Secretary of State."

Mrs. Cleveland's Last Reception.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Cleveland's last reception at the White House Tuesday noon, was attended by upwards of four hundred visitors. It partook somewhat of the nature of a melancholia party with the majority of the callers. Mrs. Cleveland stood in her usual place, the entrance to the blue room to greet her guests. She wore a becoming costume of electric blue broadcloth, made with a simple plaited skirt and cutaway jacket. At the expiration of an hour, when those who had lingered, loth to say farewell, felt it compulsory upon them to make the move, there were few dry eyes in the room, and most of those who had so long enjoyed the friendship of the president's wife wept quietly in the backgrounds.

General Spinoza Ill.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—A dispatch to the Star from Washington says that Gen. F. B. Spinoza is lying seriously ill, and, it is learned, dangerously ill at the Arlington. Two physicians are in constant attendance upon him, and his condition is regarded as quite critical. Gen. Spinoza was present in the house on Monday. On his return to the Arlington he was stricken with pneumonia.

Gen. Spinoza was born in 1821. He is serving his first term in congress, but is an active member of three important committees, and was re-elected to the next congress.

Opium Stamp Abolished.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The treasury department has discovered that the stamp placed upon imported opium or on opium when manufactured in the United States, affords little or no protection to the interests of the revenue but furnish opportunities for smugglers and others to defraud the government, and an order has been issued discontinuing the use of these stamps. Hereafter opium prepared for smoking shall be delivered to parties after the payment of the duty without any stamps being affixed to the packages.

Hannibal Hamlin There.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Ex-Vice President Hannibal Hamlin, accompanied by his wife, have arrived here to witness the inaugural ceremonies. Although notwithstanding his advanced age the venerable statesman is in the best of health and strength, he freely confesses that he does not expect to live over another presidential term, and hence his desire to witness once more the ceremony which makes another Republican the chief magistrate of the nation.

Agreement on the Land Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The conferees have agreed on the homestead land bill. They agree to the repeal of the timber culture, desert land, pre-emption land laws and the substitution for all of these of the homestead land law. A conference on the general land forfeiture bill will be held.

Harrison's Callers.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Tuesday evening after dinner at the Arlington, Gen. Harrison and his son-in-law took a walk in order to wear off the bad effects of the journey. Many prominent persons called, among them Mr. Blaine, Senator Evarts, Gen. Schofield, Senator Dolph, Congressman Steele, H. O. Armour and Mr. and Mrs. Col. John Hay. There was no formal reception.

Attacked With Epilepsy.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Beverly F. Cole, of Salem, N. Y., chief of the mineral division general land office, was Tuesday attacked with epilepsy while going down a stairway in the interior department. He fell forward and fractured his skull. He has since died.

Surgeon General Hamilton.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Surgeon General Hamilton, of the marine hospital service, has returned to the city after spending several months in Chicago. He will leave shortly for Montgomery, Ala., to attend a quarantine conference to be held in that city in a few days.

MISCEGENATION.

A Kentucky Farmer's Daughter Elopes and Weds a Colored Farm Hand.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 28.—Thomas Cassone, colored, and Annie Abbott, a buxom white girl of eighteen, were married in Jeffersonville Tuesday morning by the Rev. Ezra Miller, a colored preacher. The parties came to Jeffersonville Monday night from Trimble county, Kentucky, and remained in seclusion until morning, when the swain went to the county clerk and secured a license making oath that his bride-elect was fully twenty-one, and saying nothing as to her complexion.

Shortly after the marriage the bride's father, William Abbott, a well-to-do farmer, turned up in great distress, and was wild with grief when he found that his daughter had married the colored farm hand. He caused the arrest of the contracting parties and of the minister, and broke up a grand reception that was to have taken place at the home of a colored friend. The minister swore that the girl had a veil over her face during the ceremony, and that in consequence he did not know her color. He gave $500 bond and was released, while the bride and groom were left to languish. The charge is miscegenation, and the punishment is three years' imprisonment.

The girl says she married the man because she loved him. He played sweet music on the guitar, it seems, and appealed to her sympathetic heart with so much pathos that she could not refuse him. The object of the outraged parent is to punish the two colored men, and secure a nolle prosequi as to his daughter.

JENS CHRISTENSEN

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—At a meeting of an Anarchist group Tuesday night, held at Greif's hall, Jens Christensen, editor of the Arbeiter Zeitung, delivered a rabid "lecture." He said that the Anarchists wanted a revolution and that a revolution could not be possible without force. The means to fight the capitalists was force and power. The doings of the agitators were at present only confined to organize the masses. Christensen then said:

"The governing class will never yield to the demands of the workmen. They would see humanity go under before they will give up their alleged rights and privileges. Shall it be permitted that a small heap of lazy, privileged men shall stop the progress of the world? The working people, who contribute 75 to 80 per cent. of the whole population, will soon take cognizance of their wrongs and will call to the exploiters and manipulators a thundering halt. The lives of thousands are ruined and destroyed so that the monopolists could enrich their pockets with a million more.

"Law must be abolished. The capitalists do not ask if the means were good or not. They use everything in their power to accomplish their purposes. The fact is undisputed that our object is a noble one, and, if accomplished will make all men free and equal. A terrible outbreak will be the result of oppressions. The solution of the problem is near at hand."

DEMOCRATIC SOCIETIES.

Speaker Carlisle Favors Their Organization Throughout the Country.

YORK, Pa., Feb. 28.—Speaker Carlisle, of the National house of representatives, has addressed the following letter to ex-Lieutenant Governor Black, of this city:

"WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 18, 1889.

"To Hon. Chauncey F. Black, York, Pa.:
"DEAR SIR—Your plan for the formation of Democratic societies throughout the country meets my hearty approval, and I hope our friends everywhere will adopt it, and proceed at once to form their local organization. I am satisfied that effective co-operation in the dissemination of Democratic principles can be more certainly and speedily secured in this way than in any other that has been suggested, and it will afford me pleasure to render you all the assistance in my power in the prosecution of your work. Yours truly,
"J. G. CARLISLE."

The Discoveries of Modern Science.

"Hullo, Billy," shouted a Norwich public school boy of the primary division to a parochial school chum, "I'm studying hygiene and phiziology now! Don't teach 'em in your school, does they? They tells yer all about yerself, just how many insisters and molers yer have in yer mouth, and how yer all tied together with ligaments. If these teachers tell the truth, Billy, we're dun up just as carefully as a bundle of dried apples is!"—Norwich Bulletin.

But He'd Be in Danger Should the Populace Get Excited—A Times Witness Confesses That He Forged the Parnell Letters and Disappears—China's Emperor Married—Foreign News.

New York, Feb. 28.—The Herald's Rome special says that in an interview Signor Crispi, the Italian prime minister, stated that the temporal power is now a thing of the past, a toy for the dull hours of the mimic and the would-be statesmen.

"The pope is in no danger," he said, "so far as the government is concerned. His holiness has ample guarantees, but on the other hand he stands in great danger if the populace should be over excited. It is, therefore, as much to the interest of the Vatican as it is to that of the government of his majesty the king of Italy that the demonstrations of the last two months should be firmly repressed and prevented. These demonstrations are fomented by foreign elements. Italian workmen do not belong to these societies."

With regard to the accusation that he is unfriendly toward France, Signor Crispi said: "Once for all, I wish it known that personally I have no unfriendly feelings toward France. On the contrary, it would, in my eyes, be a crime to encourage any hostile feelings between the two nations, and it is my desire to draw them together in bonds of friendly unity that shall not easily be broken."

The Parnell-Times Case.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—It is stated that Pigott, who has been testifying for the Times before the Parnell commission for several days, has confessed that he forged all the Parnell letters. Pigott has disappeared and it is believed that he was hired to bolt by the Times and the government.

The facts in regard to Pigott's forgeries were supplied from America by messenger from Mr. Egan. Egan saw that some of the sentences used in the letters were exactly like sentences in letters which he had really written, but other matter had been put in by Pigott. He also remembered that the only person he had ever given the Paris address to was Pigott. It was a fictitious address. He sent Rev. Maurice J. Dorney, of Chicago, to Mr. Parnell with these facts, and also with proof of Pigott's being a black-mailer and vendor of obscene literature in the past. It was this knowledge that enabled Mr. Parnell's counsel to break Pigott's case up.

A warrant is out for Pigott's arrest, but it is not known where he is. It is conjectured he went to Lausanne, Switzerland.

In the house of commons Mr. Matthews, home secretary, stated that the authorities were taking steps for the extradition of Pigott whenever he should be found. In answer to a question Mr. Matthews said that the government possessed no information regarding Houston that would at present justify taking any steps to prevent his leaving the country.

Presented to the Queen.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—At the queen's drawing room Monday, Mrs. Chamberlain was presented by the duchess of Belford, and Mrs. and Miss McClellan and Mrs. Chandler were presented by Secretary of Legation White. The duchess of Marlborough was not present. The marchioness of Blandford, who obtained a divorce from the duke of Marlborough, was presented and presented her daughter, Lady Frances Churchill.

The American Ball Players.

NICE, Feb. 28.—The Chicago and All-American base ball teams have arrived from Florence. The Place d'Armes has been placed at the disposal of the teams and they will play there Thursday morning at half-past 10. All the authorities and the consuls are to be invited to witness the match.

Emperor of China Married.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—A dispatch from Pekin announces that the emperor of China has been married.

Foreign Notes.

The rumors of an engagement between Prince Charles, of Sweden, and Princess Victoria, of Prussia, are denied.

The German government will not allow the Bulgarian loan to be issued in Germany, because Bulgaria has no recognized government.

The Berlin Post congratulates Russia upon having found a market for her securities in France. It says that the government desires German investors to get good prices for their Russian stocks, and invest in German securities.

Shot His Sweetheart and Suicided.

ATLANTA, Ill., Feb. 28.—Edward Artis, a young colored man, shot Kittle Palmer Tuesday afternoon and shortly afterward committed suicide. The Palmer girl was the only colored graduate of the high school, and was perfecting herself for teaching. Artis has been forcing his attentions on her for some time, and she repeatedly rejected him. Tuesday he lay in wait, and, meeting her near her home, shot her in the left temple, inflicting a fatal wound. Immediately after the shooting Artis fled for the woods. He was pursued, and shot himself through the heart.

THE SOUP DIDN'T SUIT 'EM.

Mighty Lively Time for Awhile in a Boston Work House.

Boston, Feb. 28.—A rebellion prevailed in the South Boston house of correction Tuesday which was not quelled until 4 o'clock a. m., when some Boston policemen stopped it. The outbreak was due to a series of annoyances during the past few days, beginning with a complaint of one prisoner against another.

Tuesday morning plans were made for a general outbreak in the workshop. At dinner two men refused the soup, and declared that they would not work until a better article was furnished. An uproar followed, and many dishes were thrown around. The men obeyed an order to return to their cells, but refused to resume work. Attempts at coercion failed, and soon an unearthly din was set up—cat calls, shrieks and groans made the corridors a bedlam.

Several men put up bars in front of their cells. The disturbances continued all the afternoon and during the night. A serious outbreak was expected, and at four city police stations every man who returned at 1 a. m., was kept on duty the rest of the night.

At 10 a. m. most of the rebellious men had returned to work. It is said that a change was made in the cooking department a few days ago and that complaints have been made ever since. There are 625 prisoners in the building, and the place is said to be greatly overcrowded.

Ives and Stayner were brought from jail Tuesday and pleaded not guilty. It is reported that Woodruff has turned state's evidence.

He says he knew nothing of the workings of the groups, and was not cognizant of any secret organization.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY EVE., FEB. 28, 1889.

Wake Up.

Some days ago a gentleman from Cincinnati was here and expressed a desire to remove to Maysville and invest capital in a manufacturing industry. His son and a son-in-law are also desirous of coming here and are willing to put money into the same enterprise.

We are assured that they are reliable, trustworthy men. They don't ask for any donation from the people of Maysville. All they want is for some of our citizens to join them in the enterprise and invest enough capital with their own to place the proposed industry on a substantial basis at the very start.

Now, although this was mentioned some days ago, not a single step has yet been taken in the matter by our people. This is not the way for the citizens of Maysville to act if they expect to add to the industrial interests of their city. If we expect people to come here we must at least offer them words of encouragement, and show a willingness to co-operate with them. The proposition of these Cincinnati gentlemen has so far been treated with what might be termed a contemptuous silence. We regret that such is the case, and we trust that the citizens who meet at the County Clerk's office to-morrow night will take hold of the matter and do something. Trifling with such business as this is not calculated to do our city any good.

Merchants and property-owners are vitally interested in anything tending to add to the commercial activity of their city, and the merchants and property-owners of Maysville should bestir themselves in this matter. Their inactivity and don't-care-a-cuss way of treating such propositions as the one mentioned above is discouraging, and is calculated to do Maysville no good.

OFFICE-SEEKERS will not give General Harrison much time this week to think about his Cabinet.

THE President has recognized E. Girard as Consul of Belgium, at Louisville, for the States of Kentucky and Tennessee.

If the citizens of this city were actuated by the proper spirit, there would be no trouble at all to secure $15,000 or $20,000 to start a shoe factory here.

If Kentucky is to have a place in Harrison's Cabinet, the Louisville Commercial thinks General Cassius M. Clay would do honor to the State and the administration. What's the matter with Bradley?

THERE are two hundred and ten Commonwealth cases on the docket at the present term of the Bath Circuit Court. There ought to be several more, judging from the recent theft of the indictments at Owingsville.

The fight over the county offices in Nicholas has commenced early. The election does not come off till August, 1890, but three candidates for Assessor, four for Jailor and one for School Superintendent have already announced themselves.

CLEVELAND received 94,000 votes more than Harrison last November, and the man who will be inaugurated President next Monday is not the choice of the people. Counting the Prohibition vote, the Republicans lacked nearly half a million of having a majority.

MR. JOHN R. DOWNING announces himself to-day as a candidate for County Assessor at the August election, 1890, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Downing is a resident of Washington precinct. He is a young man of industrious habits and well qualified for the position.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has vetoed the bill granting a pension to William Barney, of Richmond, Ky. Barney accidentally shot himself while returning to his command from a visit to his family. Both Houses of Congress thought it a meritorious case, but the President says the Government is not an "Accident Insurance Company." Such fellows as Barney will dance a jig when Cleveland is no longer President, but the people will have to pay the fiddler.

GENERAL THOMAS E. ROSSER, of Virginia, recently said: "I feel that I am, and I believe that every brave Confederate is, more loyal to the constitutional Government of the United States than are the rank and file of the Grand Army of the Republic (so called), and I believe that we have more affection for and are more loyal to the flag of the new Union than they."

My, how this will rile some of the "boys in blue." Every brave Confederate may not be "more loyal" than the rank and file of the G. A. R., but there's just as much loyalty in the South to-day as there is in the North or East or West.

DEACON RICHARD SMITH turned himself loose, in his Toledo Commercial a few days ago, on Governor Foraker and the air has been filled with hair, figuratively speaking, ever since. It has kicked up a terrible racket in the ranks of the Buckeye Republicans. Foraker says Smith is "an object of charity whether considered morally, financially or politically," and has no doubt added a great many other mean things about the good Deacon. The fight is proving interesting all round. The Democrats especially are enjoying it very much. They can afford to. They have everything to win and nothing to lose by the wordy war.

THAT demagogue and blatherskite Kennedy, who is supposed to represent an Ohio district in Congress made a malicious and unjustifiable attack on Speaker Carlisle during a speech last Tuesday on the floor of the House. Be it said to the credit of the other Republican members that his statements found no favor with them. The Louisville Commercial says: "If such blatant hypocrites were likely to obtain any countenance from thinking, conservative people, a visitation of the fool killer would be the only safe guard of the republic, but fortunately the utterances of these men are as harmless as they are extravagant and senseless."

A Card From "Citizen" About Mr. Gooding.

Appreciating as we do, the very able and efficient manner in which Hon. A. P. Gooding has represented this county in the Kentucky Legislature, we consider it but justice and a reciprocation of the loyalty and zeal which he has manifested in the discharge of his official duties to tender him a re-nomination. Whether Mr. Gooding has any inclination to re-enter the political field, of course we know not. Upon every side, and by all, it must be admitted that he has ever been true and faithful in the discharge of any and all business with which he has been entrusted by his constituents. Aside from the earnestness with which Mr. Gooding has always exerted himself in all honorable movements tending to foster the interests of Democracy, his eminent legislative and parliamentary ability, coupled with a vast experience, peculiarly adapts him to the position of Legislator, as has been shown by the rank he has taken in the framing of all laws tending to ameliorate the condition of the people for whom he has, in the past, had the honor to legislate. And with especial care has he guarded the interests of his immediate constituency.

The above facts, taken in connection with the gentleman's spotless political career, should give him priority over any aspiring opponent whomsoever. As is well known, Mr. Gooding has been bitterly opposed on former occasions, but as he has surmounted every obstacle and proved himself a servant worthy of his hire, let us unite and cordially tender him the nomination if he desires it. ## TOBACCO GROWERS.

They Ratify the Resolution for a 50 per Cent. Reduction of the Crop.

The Tobacco Growers' Association of the White Burley district met at Lexington last Tuesday.

Delegates were present from twenty-four counties in this State and one in Ohio. Hon. A. P. Gooding represented the growers of Mason. The meeting was called for the purpose of taking action on the proposed reduction of 50 per cent. in the acreage of tobacco for the year 1889, and the reports of the delegates who were present showed that the sentiment throughout the State was rather divided as to what reduction should be made in the crop of this year. Many were in favor of reducing the production to one-half, while others were strongly in favor of reducing the crop but 25 per cent. The delegate from the Ohio district reported his county as being in favor of not producing any crop at all this year.

Resolved, That this convention deems it unwise to pass any resolution proclaiming a certain percentage of crop reduction for the year 1889, but recommends to Burley growers everywhere the necessity for a reduced acreage and better handling of the crop, toward which end we are willing to work in common with other sections, and those non-burley producing sections that are contemplating the production of burley in 1889 are warned not to be deceived by the agitation of the “no crop” and “half crop” idea in Central Kentucky and Southern Ohio.

These resolutions were a complete back-down on those adopted at the meeting of February 4th and caused considerable discussion. Mr. Keller was in favor of upholding the resolutions of the convention of February 4th. The resolution presented by Judge Payne was defeated.

The resolutions of the convention of February 4th recommending a reduction of 50 per cent. in the crop were then adopted.

Mr. Keller offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That we recommend that each county organization put a lecturer or canvasser in the field in their counties to complete this work and to press the work by school district meetings.

This resolution was carried.

The convention then adjourned to meet in Lexington on Tuesday, June 18.

During the last year between 50,000 and 75,000 mules were sold in St. Louis, representing several millions of dollars in cash.

At Ripley, William Stamm sold and delivered 12,000 pounds of tobacco, at an average price of 11½ cents a pound. The crop netted him over $1,400.

Religious Miscellany.

The Ohio & Mississippi road earned in the first week in February $78,387, an increase over earnings of the corresponding week in 1888 of $5,684.

On March 1 the Kanawha Dispatch, which has been reaching St. Louis over the Louisville, Evansville & St. Louis road, will be transferred to the Cincinnati, Indianapolis & Chicago road. This is the fast-freight line established by the Chesapeake & Ohio road, over which it reaches the seaboard.

JOHN MORGAN's officers who were imprisoned in the Ohio Penitentiary in 1864 are to have an informal meeting at Winchester, August 1st, 1889. Of the sixty-five or seventy only about thirty-five are living. There is to be no parade or show, but simply an informal meeting.

Six negroes from Millersburg and one from Nicholas County have been convicted in the United States Court at Louisville of selling liquor without license. Each was fined $100, and sent to jail thirty days.

THOMAS GUILFOYLE has taken charge of the St. James Hotel on Market street, and asks for a share of the public patronage. He invites his friends to call, and assures all that they will be well cared for at the St. James. 16d

ROBERT BROWNING, who was so badly crippled a year or so ago by the falling of a building at Cincinnati, lost the suit he brought against the owners of the building for damages. His attorneys have filed a motion for a new trial, and the case will probably be compromised.

AN exchange gives the following good advice: “When a man points a gun at you, knock him down. Don't stop to ask if it is loaded, but knock him down, and don't be particular what you do it with. If there's to be a coroner's inquest, let it be over the other fellow—he won't be missed.”

HAVE your eyes examined by Dr. King's optometer. We can fit near-sighted or failing sight with greatest accuracy. We are headquarters for fine diamonds, watches, jewelry and silverware. Gold and silver head umbrellas at reduced prices. dtf HOPPER & MURPHY.

A DEED from Henry E. Pogue, John N. Thomas, Thomas Wells and David Hechinger to the Standard Oil Company for a lot of ground between the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad and the river, in the West End, has been lodged for record in the County Clerk's office. Price, $1,000.

JAMES ABNEE, aged twenty-five, was assassinated Sunday night as he stepped out the side entrance of a saloon and grocery at Paris. Pat Hunt is accused of the murder. Hunt is the husband of Mary Hunt, who is now serving a three-years' term in the penitentiary for killing Rick Thomas a few years ago. Above was one of the principal witnesses against Mrs. Hunt.

REV. J. M. EVANS returned from Bowling Green and McHenry, Southern Kentucky, where he has been engaged some time in revivals. At former place there were ninety-two additions to the church, and $400 raised for evangelistic purposes; at latter place there were forty-four additions and $1,000 was raised for the church. The meetings were the most successful he ever held.

MESSRS. W. LARUE THOMAS & BRO. aim to keep a stock of goods that will suit the poor as well as the rich. It matters not how much you want to invest they assure you you can save money by calling on them. Their stock of china, glass and queensware is the most complete ever offered here. They have cooking stoves at all prices, from the lowest to the highest. They are also prepared to do tin-roofing in the very best workmanlike manner. Call on them.

THE committees appointed some two weeks or so ago to solicit subscriptions to the proposed manufacturing association are reminded that they are expected to make a full report of their work at the public meeting to be held to-morrow (Friday) night at the County Clerk's office. It ought to be no trouble at all to secure subscriptions for five hundred shares of stock. It is the present intention we believe to organize with that number, and it is hoped the committees will make as favorable a report as possible.

AN UNEASINESS

Created Among English Investors in American Ventures.

AN ARTICLE IN THE LONDON TELEGRAPH THE CAUSE OF IT.

What Security Have the English Investors in American Breweries Against the Ruinous Prohibitory Legislation Which is Gradually Gaining Ground in This Country?

LONDON, Feb. 25.—A paragraph in the financial column of the Telegraph has created a natural uneasiness among English investors in some of the American ventures that have lately become so popular here. The author of the item in question, it is understood, derived the information contained in it from a former United States official, now in England, a suggestive proof of the progress of the American practice of interviewing, generally denounced as undignified by the major portion of the English press.

There has been for some time a run in the direction of brewery shares in the United States, the almost uniformly successful ventures in that line having had the natural effect of drawing the attention of capitalists.

The enormous fortunes made by such world renowned businesses as those of Bass, Guinness, Alsopp and others, have at various times tempted people with less capital, or inferior capacity to embark in similar enterprises, and millions of pounds have been lost in the vain attempt to rival the great established firms in the public estimation.

The falling off in the exports to India and Australia and the serious rivalry which English ale has encountered in the latter colony in the shape of American beer, have impressed upon the English mind that the limit of profitable production at home has been reached, for the present at least, while the enormous increase of population in America gives assurance of a larger demand there for many years to come.

It appears to be an axiom in England, as well as in other countries, that the trade in luxuries is more profitable than in necessities, and schemes for buying up Cuban cigar factories and United States breweries can obtain capital to any amount.

The writer in the Telegraph pitilessly reviews the past and present of prohibitory legislation in the American republic, its progress in some of the southern and western states, and asks what security English investors have against such ruinous legislation. He instances the large losses in investments of breweries in Kansas, Iowa and other states, and the impossibility of obtaining any legal redress for such sudden wrecking of previously profitable enterprises.

There is also a reference to the repudiating measures of the last generation by which so much English money was engulfed, and a hint more or less credible to Yankee reputation for shrewdness than honesty, that it would be within the bounds of possibility for those sagacious money-getters to ruin the brewery firms by the passage of teetotal statutes, to buy up the consequently depreciated English interests for a trifle and through the manufacture of beer realize a handsome profit.

DICKINSON, Dak., Feb. 28.—John Holler lived with his wife and five children on a claim two miles from here. He and his wife had been having trouble, and he threatened to take her life. His wife left him Tuesday, and went to a neighbor's for safety, and in a short time her husband followed her, taking with him a Winchester rifle. After first driving the people from the house, he dragged his defenseless wife from her hiding place and deliberately murdered her. He then went outside and placed the muzzle of his gun against his left temple and fired, blowing the top of his head off. Before leaving his house to hunt down his wife, he locked his five children in the house and deliberately set fire to it. After he left the burning building the children escaped by breaking a window and climbing out and are now being cared for by friends.

LEGISLATURES.

Ohio.

Senate—Bills introduced: Authorizing the trial of cases as to questions of fact without a jury; prohibiting discrimination by railroad companies; empowering corporations to become sureties on bonds; relating to removal of the dead; changing the statutes concerning the counting of ballots.

House—Bills introduced: Requiring all official advertising to be printed in papers of opposite politics; authorizing executors and administrators to sell real estate at three-fourths of the appraised value; requiring sheriffs to take boys to the boys' industrial home; punishing disorderly conduct toward women; repealing the two-year clause of the lien law. A large number of local bills were passed.

LATER.

Mortley's two-cent railroad bill was lost in the senate by a vote of 14 to 15. Senate concurred in the house amendment to Mack's Southern railroad bill, which is now a law.

Cromly introduced a bill in the house authorizing the commissioners of Pickaway county to borrow $50,000 to provide for the deficiency occasioned by Treasurer Lane's default. The bill passed both houses by a suspension of the rules.

Indiana.

A bill depriving the governor of the right to appoint a state mine inspector and an oil inspector was passed over Governor Hovey's veto. In the senate a bill was passed repealing the law limiting the rates of rents allowed for the use of telephones. A bill was also passed appropriating $50,000 for cutting a channel for the Kankakee river at Mokena, Ill.

In the house a compulsory school bill was passed to engrossment.

Shut Down for Eight Days.

TACOMA, W. T., Feb. 28.—The big lumber mills on Puget Sound, at Port Gamble, Port Ludlow, Port Bleakley, Port Discovery, Port Madison, Utsalady and Tacoma shut down Monday for eight days, at the command of the lumber trust, to which they all belong. The cause of the shut-down is the overproduction of lumber and the dull market in southern California. It throws more than fifteen hundred men out of work for that period of time.

MARRIED BY GOD.

The Strange Union of an Iowa Man and Woman.

WATERLOO, Iowa, Feb. 28.—A highly sensational story comes from Decorah of a celestial marriage that ignored all statutory requirements, and, as both bride and groom claim, was based upon a direct revelation from God.

John Schurke, the groom, says that he had fasted and prayed for forty consecutive days at Minneapolis, and since coming to Decorah he has subsisted upon one meal a day, which consisted only of light soup. He spent most of his time praying and shouting. He claimed to be an "Episcopal Son" of the Deity, and that he was a member of the Salvation Army.

He says that on January 17 he received a special communication from God, by which he was united in marriage with his cousin, Miss Lucy Schaub, and that the angels surrounded them as witnesses of the marriage. The bride was about sixteen or seventeen years old, and the daughter of well-to-do parents. The fact of their living together as man and wife without any legal right to do so, led to his arrest. At the preliminary examination the father of the bride gave the following testimony:

"The defendant, John Schurke, and Lucy Schaub, my daughter, have been living together as man and wife since January 16. He said that he was married by God and that the Bible don't show that he had to get married by man. I told him they had better get married the other way—by a minister or 'quire. He said that would be a sin against God. I told Schurke that if he would not get married he would have to leave my house and the town. He said he would leave the house but not the town. He did leave the house, and my daughter Lucy went with him."

GLOVER KNOCKED-OUT

By Choynski, a San Francisco Amateur, in Fourteen Rounds.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Frank Glover was badly whipped in the California club Tuesday evening by Joe Choynski, a prominent local amateur. Though ten pounds heavier, Glover was never really in the fight. Choynski outspurred him, outfought at long and short range, and hit three times as hard. Glover was knocked-out in the fourteenth round and had to be carried from the ring. He lost half his teeth and his face was beaten to a jelly. He will probably be confined to bed for a week. Choynski escaped without a scratch barring a slight contusion over the left eye. He is only twenty years old and this is his first professional battle. Glover was in good form and Choynski's victory over him will give him backing for any amount over almost any 170 pound man in the country. The fight created great interest here.

About to Take Her Last Sleep.

ATTICA, N. Y., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Emma Alt-house, the famous sleeper, is in a condition bordering on death. She awoke Tuesday afternoon after sleeping eleven and a half days. Since then her pulse has been very quick but feeble, her temperature unnatural and her muscles motionless. Attempts to nourish her failed. Her condition is so precarious that it seems impossible that her vitality will last beyond a few hours. During the last year and a half she has slept 470 days and nights, and in all that time has not taken enough nourishment to last a well person more than a few days. Lately when awake she has been able only to move her eyes.

NATURAL GAS EXPLOSION.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 28.—At 7 o'clock a. m. the residence of Michael Murray, on Brownsville avenue, was totally wrecked by three explosions, in quick succession, of natural gas that had filled the house during the night from a leak in the street main. The bed on which Mr. Murray was sleeping was blown through the side of the house into the street.

Mr. Murray is perhaps fatally injured. Mrs. Murray and one daughter were slightly burned. Another daughter and a son were cut by flying glass, and received other injuries by jumping from the second story window to the ground. Loss on building and contents $2,500; insurance $1,300.

White Caps at Work.

"February 25, 1889.

"Mr. and Mrs. Powell: We have been watching your laziness for some time. We give you one week to get to work. You can find work of some kind; if not, we will take you out of your bed at night and treat you to fifty lashes apiece, and if that don't answer will repeat it. Forbearance has ceased to be a virtue. We will not tolerate idleness. WHITE CAPS."

Typical Crime of the Section.

BASTROP, La., Feb. 28.—An attempt was made at Oakridge Monday night to assassinate L. P. Goldman. As he was going from his store to his home he was fired upon by an unknown person. A hundred and fifty squirrel shot and several larger shot entered his back, inflicting wounds which probably will prove fatal. Mr. Goldman is a prominent merchant of Oakridge. He has always been looked upon as a quiet and inoffensive citizen.

Confederate Vets to Reunite.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 28.—All arrangements are completed for the annual reunion on Monday of the Confederate veterans. Gens. S. D. Lee, Martin and Ferguson, of Mississippi; Hagan, of Mobile, and Jackson, of Tennessee, have promised to be present. Jeff. Davis says, in response to a letter of invitation, that his health is so uncertain he believes it better to postpone till a later period an answer to the invitation.

Poverty, Filth and Infanticide.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 28.—An Italian family named Bonacoria was discovered Tuesday in a fireless room of a rickety building in the rear of No. 101 Market street. On a filthy pallet of straw on the floor lay a woman suffering from childbirth and hunger. The infant had died shortly after its birth and the father had carried it to the Monongahela river bridge and dropped it into the water.

Thought It Was Earthquake.

PORTLAND, Ind., Feb. 28.—An explosion of a grist and saw mill seven miles from Hartford City, about 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, was felt at this place. Many thought it was an earthquake. The shock was distinctly felt at Marion.

What She Saw.

Then the little girl put her chubby hand on the old man's knee.

"I see something in the fire," murmured the child.

"What is it, Fannie?" and the old man looked fondly down into her pretty face.

"A stick of wood," she replied, simply, and the old man got up and kicked over a chair.

—Washington Post.

Easy Enough.

A scientist says a man can stay under water for ten minutes as well as for twenty seconds. The statement is not surprising. A man who broke through the ice and disappeared under the water three days ago is there yet, but it is thought he will not take much interest in politics when he comes to surface.—Norristown Herald.

Broadway, New York, to Have a Cable.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 28.—Peter A. B. Widener, the horse and cable railroad magnate of this city says: "Our company will begin work, probably within ninety days, on a cable railroad in Broadway, New York, which when completed will be capable of carrying 1,000,000 passengers each day. It will be the finest road of the kind in the world."

Windom Accepts.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 28.—William Windom was here Tuesday night closeted with Steve Elkins, Henry G. Davis and others. After the conference one of the gentlemen announced to a reporter that Mr. Windom had accepted the position of secretary of the treasury in Harrison's cabinet. He has gone to Washington.

Gold in Lower California.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Feb. 28.—There is much excitement here over the gold discoveries in Lower California. A special dispatch from Esenada says reports are in circulation there that miners are averaging $1 to $2.50 per pan. A number of persons have arrived there with large nuggets in their possession. One man named Guskil had one nugget valued at $250. A great outpouring of the residents of that place for the latest diggings is in progress. The neighboring towns are also being rapidly deserted for the gold fields. A large number of gold hunters will leave San Diego for New Eldorado.

The Weather.
